

Questions

concerning the interview the Nobel Prize Winner in Literature has given after having been awarded this special price.

1. What were the writer's feelings that day?
2. Was or is she proud of herself? (stolz/D/orgoglioso/i
3. Where does all the material needed to write come from according to Alice Munro?
4. What's one of the main things you have to do as a writer?
5. What does Alice Munro want to give to her readers?
6. How does she feel about having been a housewife?
7. Why does she consider herself as a late bloomer?
8. What does she wish for other writers?
9. Why has Alice Munro been a writer?
10. What can maybe be changed because of her winning the PRIZE?